Welcome to Portsmouth the great waterfront city

As the new home of Ben Ainslie Racing and host to spectacular events, world class attractions, a great cultural offer and fabulous places to stay, Portsmouth is the top destination choice on the south coast. This guide will help you make the most of your time in the city and uncover the hidden gems that make Portsmouth unique.

In 2015 Portsmouth will once again be famed for its maritime credentials as we welcome back America's Cup Racing to British waters when the America's Cup World Series takes place. The city will host the global World Series on 23-26 July 2015 and again on 21–24 July 2016.

While in the city, don't miss the breathtaking panoramic

Portsmouth is a city of museums, where you can discover more about the city's Sherlock Holmes connection, take in views of the Solent from the battlements of Henry VIII's castle, visit the house where Charles Dickens was born, uncover the secrets of the D-Day landings, and much more.

Join the party!

Throughout 2015, Spinnaker Tower is celebrating its 10th birthday with a range of events and offers for you to enjoy.

Spinnaker Tower is the must-see start to your visit to Portsmouth, so take the opportunity to view things differently from the top of Britain's best viewing tower.

February will see special evening openings to take in the night views of the city and perhaps indulge in a spot of stargazing as well as construction-themed activities for all the family to enjoy during half-term.

The Tower will also host two special photographic exhibitions in 2015, one telling the story of the site and the construction of the Tower and the other, based on residents' memories of the Tower.

At Easter, visitors will be invited to create a real celebration by designing a sweet treat or cake with a birthday theme. The best designs will be photographed to feature in our online gallery where enthusiastic visitors can also post their home-made creations!

During the summer, celebrations will continue with street art demonstrations; family ticket offers and opportunities to meet the Tower's very own Sky Traveller, Vugo! Guests can also indulge in the seasonal menu at the Waterfront Café, showcasing local produce.

In October, there will be a whole party weekend packed with celebrations to mark the actual birthday. Face painting, balloons and cake will all feature throughout the weekend to create a real carnival atmosphere.

Additionally, throughout 2015, Café in the Clouds with its amazing 23 miles of views 105 metres above the harbour will offer special Birthday High Tea packages – ideal for any kind of celebration!

In love with the sea

As the UK's only island city, home to an unparalleled collection of maritime heritage, Portsmouth has always had a love affair with the sea.

A new chapter begins in 2015 as the Ben Ainslie Racing team opens their home base in Old Portsmouth and the America's Cup World Series (ACWS) sailing events come to the city on 23-26 July 2015 and 21-24 July 2016. Organised by Team Origin, the events will attract huge crowds to watch the exhilarating racing and will have a festival feel bringing activities and entertainment for all.

The ACWS is the preliminary race series of the 35th America's Cup, consisting of eight to ten regattas taking place around the world during 2015 and 2016. The events in Portsmouth are an opportunity for British fans to watch world class America's Cup teams and of course to support the British challenger, Ben Ainslie Racing, as they compete on home waters. The event will encompass most of the city's existing visitor destinations including Portsmouth Historic Dockyard and the Royal Naval Base, HMS Warrior and Victory, the Mary Rose Museum, the Spinnaker Tower, Gunwharf Quays and Southsea Common. Spectators will enjoy four days of activity, including practice racing on Friday and then two races on Saturday and two races on the 'Super Sunday Final'.

The new home base for Ben Ainslie Racing, opening Spring 2015, will include a visitor centre showcasing the sport and its innovation, technology and sustainability. The centre will be open for schools and groups to experience the construction and on-going operation of the team's America's Cup boats first-hand.

Portsmouth Historic Dockyard and the National Museum of the Royal Navy

The world-class Portsmouth Historic Dockyard is a unique attraction showcasing 800 years of naval history within working docks and historic buildings. Home of the Mary Rose (raised from the seabed in 1982), HMS Warrior 1860 and Nelson's flagship HMS Victory, Portsmouth Historic Dockyard offers a mixture of historic naval ships and a taste of life in the modern navy. It is the only place in the world where visitors can feel first-hand what it was really like to serve and fight on board the ships that shaped Britain's history – alongside contemporary warships of the Royal Navy.

Last year saw the opening of the eagerly anticipated National Museum of the Royal Navy's HMS - Hear My Story Exhibition in the Babcock Galleries, which tells the undiscovered personal stories from the men and women who have shaped the Navy's amazing history over the last century. Hundreds of dramatic and moving stories are told, bringing visitors face-to-face with the people of the Royal Navy, sharing in their triumphs and disasters.

Across the harbour, HMS Alliance at the Royal Naval Submarine Museum in Gosport was launched to a fanfare after a £7m refit. This unique submarine is the only surviving World War Two era submarine in the world and has been completely restored throughout, boasting new interpretation, state of the art lighting and soundscapes which bring the submarine to life. Visitors are guided through the submarine by veteran submariners who tell their stories of life beneath the sea.

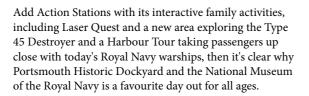

The recently opened elliptical Mary Rose Museum showcases the preserved hull of the Mary Rose and her 19,000 Tudor artefacts recovered from the seabed and displayed in themed galleries. Visitors now see the ship with its preserving sprays switched off and are able to witness the final phase of the hull's conservation through windows into a 'hotbox' as up to 100 tons of water is removed from the ship's timbers.

New for 2015, 'a small ship with a big history' - HMS M.33 is fully restored and open to visitors for the first time in her history. She is the sole remaining British veteran of the 1915 Gallipoli Campaign and the only British warship from the First World War that will be open to the public during the Gallipoli Centenary in 2015. Visitors will start their journey through HMS M.33 with a six-metre descent into the bottom of the dock before stepping aboard. This new entrance will provide a unique view of the hull of the ship and of No.1 Dock, the scheduled ancient moment in which she is berthed. New interpretation, including a stunning immersive battle experience, will bring to life HMS M.33's history, the stories of the men who served on board, and the history of the Gallipoli Campaign. A special exhibition, 'Gallipoli: Myth and Memory' opening in March at the National Museum of the Royal Navy, Portsmouth will support the HMS M.33 launch.

The All-Attractions ticket includes entry to HMS Victory, Mary Rose Museum, the National Museum of the Royal Navy, HMS Warrior 1860, Action Stations, Harbour Tours plus the Royal Navy Submarine Museum and Explosion! the Museum of Naval Firepower (both across the harbour in Gosport) and the Royal Marines Museum in Eastney.

A city packed with great reasons to visit all year round

D-Day Museum

Portsmouth's D-Day Museum is Britain's only museum dedicated solely to covering all aspects of the D-Day landings in Normandy, France, on 6 June 1944. D-Day was a turning point in the Second World War, and a moment when the course of world events depended on the Allied troops taking part.

The centrepiece of this unique museum is the magnificent Overlord Embroidery, commissioned by Lord Dulverton of Batsford as a tribute to the sacrifice and heroism of those men and women who took part in Operation Overlord. At 272 feet (83 metres) long the embroidery is the largest work of its kind in the world.

So much to see and do

Henry VIII's Southsea Castle

Southsea Castle was part of a series of fortifications built in 1544 by King Henry VIII to protect the country from invaders. This fascinating site is where the king watched his favourite warship, the Mary Rose, tragically capsize and sink in 1545.

Explore the underground tunnels, ramparts and panoramic views from the top of the Keep to the Isle of Wight and Solent. This free seafront attraction is open from March to October.

Explore the fascinating history of the Royal Marines. Take a walk through history from 1664 and learn about the lives of the extraordinary people who have become Royal Marines. Follow a recruit through training and on to deployment around the world, then creep through the jungle, marvel at the medal collection and take a trip down memory lane in their World War Two home front kitchen. Finish your day in their award-winning café The Quartermaster's Kitchen and the museum shop while enjoying the seafront location. www.royalmarinesmuseum.co.uk

Royal Marines Museum

The Forts

Strategically positioned atop Portsdown Hill with panoramic views, Fort Nelson is home to the Royal Armouries national collection of artillery - the big guns! The museum's displays trace the development of artillery from pre-gunpowder siege machines to modern-day super guns. A recent multi-million pound redevelopment has transformed the fort into a museum for the 21st century including the magnificent Voice of the Guns gallery. Visitors can also access most areas of the fortifications and see how the Fort would have operated.

www.royalarmouries.org

Nearby Fort Purbrook and Fort Widley are activity centres offering diverse and accessible facilities. At Fort Widley a new centre has been set up to display artefacts, reproduction exhibits and memorabilia from World War One.

Eastney Beam Engine House

Now preserved as a museum, Eastney Beam Engine House, home to a pair of James Watt beam engines and reciprocal pumps, restored to their 1887 condition, and the later Gas Engine House are open the last full weekend of every month (except December). Free entry.

Garrison Church

An English Heritage property, the Garrison Church has stood in Portsmouth for nearly 800 years serving as a medieval hospital,

Tudor ammunition store and church for the forces since the 1580s. Although the nave was badly damaged in a 1941 fire-bomb raid on Portsmouth, the chancel remains roofed and furnished.

Cathedrals

Portsmouth is among only a handful of British cities to have two cathedrals. Portsmouth's Anglican Cathedral (St Thomas') in Old Portsmouth has a unique and dramatic history reflecting its close association with the sea. Portsmouth's Catholic Cathedral (St John's) offers a quiet space in the heart of the city and is a fine example of 19th century French-gothic style architecture.

Old Portsmouth's Fortifications

Visit the Round Tower and walk along the historic fortifications at the entrance to Portsmouth harbour to the Square Tower - built in 1494 as part fortifications and as a home to the Governor of Portsmouth, the tower was converted to a gunpowder store in 1584 and restored to its present condition between 1979 and 1986. Now host to a year round programme of events. Find out more at www.squaretower.co.uk

Starting in 2015, the ARTches project will see the current vacant arches sympathetically converted into artist studio spaces, breathing life into these historic structures. The new spaces will open in 2016.

Family fun for everyone

Whatever your age there are plenty of indoor and outdoor attractions in the city to enjoy during your stay.

Beside the seaside!

The seafront is one of the most popular areas in Portsmouth, with the beach stretching along the whole southern end of Portsea Island from Old Portsmouth to Eastney. Indulge in an ice-cream on the sunny promenade, looking out across the Solent, Europe's busiest waterway. On any given day you can spot ferries, warships, liners, oil tankers and Tall Ships on the water. Southsea Common, adjacent to the beach, is a vast open space ideal for kite flying, picnics, barbecues and informal ball games.

There are outstanding floral displays along the whole of the seafront, varying from award-winning bedding displays at The Dell, Burgoyne Gardens and Southsea Rose Garden to the varied sheltered planting at the Rock Gardens.

Blue Reef

Blue Reef Aquarium is the perfect place for a family visit. With daily talks, feeding demonstrations and hands-on encounters, you'll find out just what it's like to be a keeper. Don't forget your bathers in the warm weather; the Blue Reef Beach Club features a sandy beach, rock pool, sandpit, pirate's bridge and outdoor splash play area.

www.bluereefaquarium.co.uk

Canoe Lake

This fun, family spot is popular for crabbing, pedalos and picnics, with a model village and play park complete with a splash pool. A must on sunny days.

Cumberland House

Just by Canoe Lake is Cumberland House, Portsmouth's natural history museum. Meet the resident iguanodon, find out about Portsmouth's local wildlife and explore the variety in the natural world in the new A-Z of Natural History display. During the summer months, pop in and see beautiful tropical and British butterflies in the museum's seasonal butterfly house. Free entry. www.portsmouthnaturalhistory.co.uk

All the fun of the fair!

Further along the seafront you'll find Clarence Pier, one of the largest amusement parks on the south coast, boasting a wide range of amusements, rides and activities for the whole family. Indulge the kids with a few wild rides or head indoors to Pirate Pete's adventure play area.

Festivals, fun and fabulous art and culture

From live music to high drama, great events, literary highlights and comedy to make you laugh until it hurts, Portsmouth's cultural programme offers something for everyone.

> Portsmouth is a true festival city. Enjoy a packed two days of music, history, art and heritage at the annual Victorious Festival in August, indulge yourself with an exceptional selection of food goodies, cooking demonstrations and live music at the annual Southsea Food Festival in July, enjoy a bookie break in the birthplace of Charles Dickens and Sherlock Holmes at Bookfest in October, pound the pavements during the sporting festival weekend that is the Great South Run in October or travel back in time with the Victorian Festival of Christmas in November.

Add to the mix film festivals, shopping festivals and the annual cultural fest that is Portsmouth Festivities and you will be spoilt for choice. With festivals throughout the year and a full programme of music, theatre and art, Portsmouth is fast becoming the South's new culture hub.

Portsmouth Festivities, June

Showcasing the art, culture and heritage of Portsmouth, this annual 10-day citywide festival includes music, theatre, dance, art, literature, talks, film, outdoor events and family activities.

Southsea Food Festival, July

A free urban and family-oriented festival in the heart of Southsea featuring music, food stalls and cooking demonstrations. This fun, family day out celebrates all that is good and great about Southsea restaurateurs and the south coast.

Portsmouth International Kite Festival, August

Recognised as one of the best kite festivals in the world, this free event includes demonstrations of kites from across the world including swarms of snakes, frogs, lizards, whales, jesters, fish, salamanders and much more! The event also includes a craft tent, stalls, funfair and workshops.

Victorious Festival, August

Southsea will be transformed for two days in August when the family friendly, music lovers' Victorious Festival returns for 2015. Expect more stages, bigger acts, a new kids' stage and loads more, all from one of the best value festivals in the country! (pictured below)

D Portsmouth Shopping Festival, September

Indulge in some retail therapy across Portsmouth's three main shopping areas and enjoy great special offers and entertainment.

🧭 Bookfest, October

This annual literary festival includes a range of events such as CSI Portsmouth, audiences with local and international authors and a range of talks and activities for all ages.

Victorian Festival of Christmas

A fabulous day out gets even better when you add Victorian festival fun to the world class attractions in Portsmouth Historic Dockyard, with street markets, live entertainment, Fagin's pub and snow there's no better way to kick off the festive season!

Artistic licence

Aspex Gallery in Gunwharf Quays presents an outstanding exhibition programme featuring works by contemporary artists from around the world. Aspex is also a great place to see Portsmouth's freshest artistic talent. Soak up the atmosphere in this former naval storehouse and make time for a coffee or organic bite to eat in the café.

Portsmouth Museum is home to picture and decorative art galleries. Spend time visiting the rest of this free museum and enjoy tea and cake in the beautiful gardens.

Other galleries in the city include Access All Areas and the Zodiac Art Gallery at Portsmouth Guildhall featuring a mix of music history and spectacular touring exhibitions, GASP (Art Space Portsmouth), The Lodge Arts Centre in Victoria Park, The Kings Theatre and Portsmouth University.

Live afternoon music

The Bandstand, set within the western ramparts of Southsea Castle, is a highlight of the calendar on summer Sunday afternoons when people flock with picnics to enjoy free live music.

A night at the theatre

The Kings Theatre is one of the most complete Matcham theatres in the country and plays host to touring West End productions and a varied programme of opera, ballet, comedy, drama and music.

In the heart of the city, the New Theatre Royal is home to cutting-edge dance, theatre, drama, music and comedy. The theatre is currently closed while rebuilding takes place to the backstage area which will increase the seating capacity and create a centre for workshops, learning and new work as well as providing spaces for rehearsals and a range of community activities – opening in 2015.

Groundlings Theatre is an exciting arts venue in Portsmouth based in the stunning Beneficial School.

Theatre isn't just confined to four walls, look out for openair Shakespeare performances in the summer; your chance to see The Bard's plays under the stars.

Lights, camera, action...

Whilst the state-of-the-art multiplex cinemas at Gunwharf Quays and Port Solent attract film lovers from far and wide, Portsmouth is also home to a number of independent cinemas showing world film and new releases together with cult and classic movies.

Music scene

Portsmouth has a lively music scene with something for every taste. There's a regular programme of blues, jazz, folk, pop, rock and classical music in venues across the city.

Portsmouth Guildhall, the city's largest concert venue, is home to major touring artists such as Paul Weller and Royal Blood, plus classical musical concerts with orchestras including The Bournemouth Symphony, London Symphony and the Royal Philharmonic.

The Pyramids Centre on Southsea waterfront features acts such as the Boomtown Rats, Chas and Dave and plays host to festival warm-ups, plus with national and international live acts on tour, the Wedgewood Rooms has seen its fair share of legends.

Other venues for a range of music styles in an intimate setting include the Cellars at Eastney, Little Johnny Russells and the Jolly Sailor. Portsmouth Cathedral hosts a series of concerts plus regular lunchtime organ, vocal and ensemble recitals.

Laugh out loud

If you like a laugh then you'll find comedy nights at Jongleurs, the Spinnaker Tower and The Cellars. Portsmouth Guildhall, the Kings Theatre and the Wedgewood Rooms also play host to some of the top names in comedy throughout the year.

Clubbing

Partygoers can sample the nightlife of Portsmouth's many pubs and clubs, which are host to top name DJs and regular themed nights, so you can dance until the small hours.

Home to Ben Ainslie Racing and host to premium events including sailing, running and triathlons, Portsmouth is a major player on the south's sporting scene.

America's Cup World Series

Visit in July to view exhilarating world-class ocean racing as Ben Ainslie Racing compete in the America's Cup World Series events (see page 6).

25 years of the Bupa Great South Run

2015 marks 25 years of the Great South Run in Portsmouth. This event, hailed as the world's premier 10-mile running event, includes a full weekend of activities on 24 and 25 October, including a Bupa Junior and Mini Great South Run and a 5k Great South Run on the Saturday, and the main event over ten miles on the Sunday.

You can enter online at www.greatrun.org

Try a Tri!

Looking for a challenge for fitness, fun, fundraising or team-building? Try Portsmouth's own beginner-friendly triathlon on Sunday 14 June with distances for both adults and children from age 8-years old.

Swim, bike and run along Southsea seafront, starting with a sea swim from the beach between South Parade Pier and Southsea Castle, then cycling on flat traffic-free roads along the seafront to finish with a run along the promenade, this will be a fast and exciting event.

Those who aren't able to do all three disciplines but are looking for a challenge can sign up with two friends or family members and enter the team relay race.

If you like it or are looking for a bigger challenge, look out for the mass participation triathlon event, Portsmouth Triathlon, on 6 September, offering both an Olympic or sprint distance triathlon around the iconic locations of Portsmouth. Swim, bike and run on closed roads through Southsea and the Historic Dockyard.

With a spectacular iconic course starting at Castle Field, swim in the Solent between South Parade Pier and Southsea Castle, and cycle on traffic-free roads past Southsea Castle, HMS Victory in the Historic Dockyard, HM Naval Base and then run through Old Portsmouth for a photo opportunity with the Spinnaker Tower behind you, past the Garrison Church before returning along the promenade passing the D-Day Museum to Castle Field in front of Henry VIII's historic Southsea Castle. This is a unique and exciting triathlon event where you can race and visit the iconic locations of Portsmouth at the same time!

seafront, with miles of pebble beaches to explore and gigantic green spaces where you can soak up the sea air.

Enjoy the tennis courts, crazy and mini golf, pitch 'n' putt and beach volleyball courts or bring a rug and relax while the kids let off some steam. On a hot summer's day the beaches in Southsea are perfect for a paddle.

Portsmouth's waterfront looks even more spectacular from the water, so hit the high-seas with an adrenaline-filled RIB ride out into the Solent.

Splash out

Warm, sunny day? Take children to the under-eight's splash pool opposite the D-Day Museum on Southsea seafront or to the watersplash at Canoe Lake for some free fun.

The Mountbatten Centre in Portsmouth is home to an eight-lane 50-metre main pool with submersible boom and moveable floor. It also has a separate children's pool.

The Pyramids Centre can be found right on the seafront and boasts fun pools with flumes, wave machines and water fountains, providing hours of family fun. It is also home to a soft play centre offering three levels of fun with a ball pit, ladders and play area. Perfect if the weather doesn't live up to your expectations!

Hilsea Lido offers outdoor swimming, diving and splash pool. Dating back to the 1930s the Lido is found in the beautiful setting of Hilsea Lines.

On the water

Portsmouth Watersports Centre offers a range of activities from canoeing and kayaking to powerboating. It also boasts a 13-metre climbing tower.

Adventure College, also based in the city, is a unique diving and watersports activity centre.

and just about anyone who wants to rip it up on the water.

Pedal power

If you enjoy cycling, make the most of the fresh, clean, sea air and get on your bike. We have put together 10 themed cycle trails, allowing you to take in the sights at your leisure. Cycle hire is available in the city. Follow the Seafront Cycle Ride (4.5 miles) and stop at the city's top attractions. Take the circular Langstone Harbour Ride (15 miles) to discover a more natural side to the city, or uncover the city's most well-known inhabitants on the Famous Figures Cycle Ride (7.5 miles).

Best foot forward

If travelling on foot is more your style, then why not join one of the regular guided walks that the city has to offer. With themes such as Authors of Southsea, Pubs of Portsmouth and the Nelson Trail, you'll know all about the city in no time. Alternatively, guide yourself around the waterfront following the Millennium Promenade using the motif set in the pavement.

Teeing off

Portsmouth boasts two 18-hole golf courses - Portsmouth Golf Centre and Portsmouth Golf Course - both available for pay and play, with outstanding views and affordable golf on great courses.

Get your skates on

The promenade along Southsea seafront is ideal for inline and roller skating whatever your age. Zip down to Southsea Skatepark on the seafront, home to international standard ramps.

The home of great writing

From Dickens to Doyle, Portsmouth has a great literary heritage.

Charles Dickens statue, Guildhall Square

Best known as the Birthplace of Charles Dickens and the fictional Sherlock Holmes, many great authors such as Rudyard Kipling, H G Wells and Nevil Shute along with contemporary writers such as Neil Gaiman, Graham Hurley and Betty Burton have strong city associations. Portsmouth also has a flourishing contemporary literary scene including two festivals that feature literature heavily: Portsmouth Festivities in June and the Portsmouth BookFest in October.

Charles Dickens' Birthplace Museum

The great author was born in Portsmouth in 1812. You can learn more about the celebrated author of Oliver Twist, Nicholas Nickleby and many other novels by visiting Charles Dickens' Birthplace Museum.

This small house in the heart of the city is where the great author's life started and is a fascinating look into his humble beginnings.

www.charlesdickensbirthplace.co.uk

Follow the Dickens Trail to find out more about the great author's city connections including a visit to Guildhall Square, home to the new prize-winning Charles Dickens statue.

'A Study in Sherlock' exhibition

The creator of Sherlock Holmes, Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, worked in Portsmouth as a doctor while writing classic tales such as A Study in Scarlet and The Sign of Four and it was here that his most famous detective first came to life.

The city was chosen by Richard Lancelyn Green as the home for his extraordinary collection of Conan Doylerelated books, papers and assorted Sherlock Holmes memorabilia. You can visit this exhibition at Portsmouth Museum for free. More of the collection can be viewed by arrangement at Portsmouth History Centre.

A taste of Portsmouth

Al fresco dining with great sea views, cosmopolitan café culture, cuisine from all over the world and fabulous fish and chips, plus food festivals, markets and events, make Portsmouth a foodie paradise.

A tasty teacake in Old Portsmouth, a cosmopolitan cocktail at Gunwharf Quays, a locally sourced pie in a quirky record shop or fabulous fish and chips by the sea... Portsmouth has something to tantalise all taste buds. Casual cafés and waterfront bars sit alongside vibrant independent eateries, popular curry houses and fine dining restaurants.

Something for everyone

Southsea offers a diverse range of eateries serving food from all corners of the globe. Eat your way around the world at quirky cafés, brasseries, bistros and bars, finding traditional English, Italian, French, Spanish, Mexican, Lebanese, Indian, Turkish, Thai and Greek cuisine in one location. In July the Southsea Food Festival offers food markets, tastings, demonstrations and live music.

Café culture

Wander down to Pie and Vinyl in Castle Road for a hearty locally supplied pie followed by a browse through the record shop. Southsea Coffee Company offers great food and independent speciality coffee, or for a bite to eat with fantastic sea views head to Southsea Beach Café.

Old Portsmouth

In Old Portsmouth traditional pubs and quaint tea rooms line the cobbled streets. Experience the quiet life here; explore the Camber Dock and ramparts then indulge in some home-cooked food at a pub overlooking the harbour. Sip wine al fresco in the summer or enjoy a coffee by a cosy fire in the colder months.

Southsea Beach Cafe

Sea views and top restaurants

There's nothing better than dining with a sea view on a summer's evening. Many restaurants at Port Solent and Gunwharf Quays boast glorious terraces overlooking the marina and harbour respectively.

Or head out to Southsea seafront for dining right on the beach. Just make sure you get there early to bag the best spot!

Two celebrity chefs have chosen Gunwharf Quays, Portsmouth as the location for their restaurants. Founded by renowned chef Raymond Blanc, Brasserie Blanc offers quality French food in a relaxed environment, whilst Jamie's Italian, by Jamie Oliver, offers quality Italian food.

Picnics or barbecues

Southsea Common has a number of allocated barbecue areas, meaning you can enjoy a taste of summer with the backdrop of the Solent. If that sounds like too much hard work then pack a picnic basket full of Hampshire goodies.

A taste of the farm

Hampshire Farmers Markets come to the city once a month so it's easy to take a taste of Hampshire's finest home with you.

Fishy treat

You can't visit a waterfront city without a taste of the ocean. The vibrant fish market in Old Portsmouth is the place to find the day's fresh catch. Or why not enjoy traditional fish and chips by the sea? Pick up a seaside supper from Rock 'n' Sole on the seafront and watch the sun set.

Travel information

Hayling Island and Emsworth

With two harbours – both havens for wildlife – great beaches with a growing reputation for exhilarating water sports, and lovely waterfront and countryside walks and cycle rides, this area is a great place to blow away the cobwebs and get away from it all.

Hayling Island and Havant – ideal for fun-filled family breaks.

Home to a Blue Flag beach at Beachlands, with grassy dunes providing delightful picnic spots, the unspoilt nature of Hayling Island waterfront is what sets it aside from many other larger resorts. The Hayling Seaside Railway – a favourite with families – runs from Beachlands and along the beach to Eastoke Corner, where you can find a variety of small shops, including the Terracotta Pot Shop, an ice cream parlour and the Hayling Plaza where outdoor events are often held. Treat the children to a thrilling ride at the seaside funfair.

Follow the World War One heritage trail along the beach front and view the COPP (Combined Operations Pilotage Parties) memorial commemorating the wartime acts of heroism on the island.

Windsurfing was invented here and is very popular on the south beach along with other watersports. Hayling is now making a name for itself as the south's new hotspot for kitesurfers. This exciting water sport is a mix of windsurfing, surfing, skateboarding, wakeboarding, snowboarding and paragliding. Hayling offers the ideal location with sheltered waters and consistent sea breezes. The annual Virgin Kite Surfing Armada aims to bring the kitesurfing community together for an awesome two day kitesurfing festival. The island set a Guinness World Record for the longest line of kite surfers and holds the record for the longest line of stand-up paddle boarders.

Other popular island activities include horse riding and golf – the island boasts two golf courses.

Langstone harbour to the west side of Hayling Island has a real abundance of nature to discover, along with a fascinating history. Follow the Hayling Billy trail or join the Langstone harbour cycle trail to discover more – you can ride right round to Portsmouth then take the passenger ferry back over to the island.

The Shipwrights Way, with its sculptures of local interest, links the South Downs with the Historic Dockyard in Portsmouth via Hayling Island. Discover the old oyster house and oyster beds, dating back to Victorian times, now a safe haven for gulls, terns and waders.

Chichester harbour is found to the east of the island and is an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. This sheltered, almost landlocked harbour is a favourite with sailors and windsurfers of all levels.

Take a boat trip around the harbour for stunning views and a spot of bird watching.

www.visitportsmouth.co.uk

Staunton Park

Visit Staunton in Havant, home to the south coast's largest ornamental glasshouses, beautiful gardens, an 1830s ornamental farm that's a great favourite with families, and 1,000 acres of parkland to explore.

Stansted Park and House

Visit this Edwardian house set in 1,700 acres of ancient forest, home to exciting events, fabulous weddings, openair theatre, concerts and cricket – played on the lawns since the 1740s.

Somewhere to stay

There are quality hotels like the Langstone and Brookfield, to holiday villages like Mill Rythe and Sinah Warren, a good range of independent bed & breakfasts and guest houses like Hollybank House, and many camping and caravanning sites. There is plenty of choice if you want to extend your stay or make this your base for a visit to the area.

Emsworth

With its harbour, independent shops and galleries, wonderful eating and the South Downs nearby, Emsworth is perfect for visitors who want to spend days by the seaside or take wonderful walks.

This picturesque market town on the River Ems is located at the top of Chichester harbour and has a growing reputation as a foodie favourite with a great selection of restaurants and public houses, many of which started out as 18th century coaching inns.

The town has a long history connected with oyster fishing and boat building and still boasts traditional shipwrights and chandleries. It is popular with sailors – home to two sailing clubs, artists and ramblers. Wander down the historic streets, lined with a mixture of architectural styles, browse in the shops and stop for a truly special bite to eat, then stroll along the waterfront and take in the fantastic views across the harbour.

The tidal Mill Ponds to the east and west are home to a host of bird life as is the Brook Meadow conservation area.

The author P G Wodehouse lived in the town in Record Road and his home is marked by a blue plaque. His stay in the area is immortalised by the use of local place names in his Jeeves and Wooster novels. You can find out more about the town's rich past at the local history museum open on summer weekends above the fire station.

Shopping in Emsworth

Discover a wide variety of specialist shops ranging from fine antiques and interior design to independent butchers, bakers, chandlers and even candle stick makers! Shop at the monthly Farmers Market or treat yourself to some locally caught fish, in season.

Foodie favourite

The small town has a good range of historic pubs alongside fine dining offering quality food at a range of prices. Visit during the annual Emsworth British Food Fortnight and enjoy a range of culinary events and activities along with some truly great food!

To find out more about Hayling Island, Emsworth and Havant check out visithavant.co.uk or phone the Visitor Information Centre on 023 9246 7111.

Out and about

Portsmouth is the ideal base to explore England's beautiful south coast.

Portchester Castle

This medieval castle, built within a former Roman fort at the top of Portsmouth harbour is great for a family day out.

Submarines at Gosport

A short ferry ride across Portsmouth Harbour is Gosport. There you will find The Royal Navy Submarine Museum and Explosion Museum of Naval Firepower both included in the Portsmouth Historic Dockyard All-Attraction ticket.

Set sail to the Island

Take the short journey across to the Isle of Wight by Hovercraft, Fastcat or the Wightlink Ferry. Visit the famous Carisbrooke Castle and Osborne House, once home to Queen Victoria.

Titanic memories

Visit SeaCity Museum in Southampton to remember the tragic tale of the Titanic and discover maritime history brought to life through an interactive experience designed for all ages. Or discover the story of the Spitfire at Solent Sky.

Explore the beautiful National Parks

Right on our doorstep you'll find the South Downs National Park, full of fascinating trails to walk or cycle and some great adventure pursuits such as horse riding, hot-air ballooning, golf, hang-gliding and paragliding.

The 140,000 acre New Forest National Park offers a wealth of places to visit and is a haven for cyclists, horse riders and walkers. Discover the beautiful open heaths, ancient oaks and tall pines then meet the famous New Forest ponies as well as deer and cattle in their natural habitat. Visit Peppa Pig World at Paulton's Park or find out more about vintage motors at Beaulieu.

Discover Sussex

Just along the coast is the beautiful county of West Sussex, rich in history, from impressive castles, historic houses, racing and museums to suit all interests to the city of Chichester with its Roman roots and palace at Fishbourne.

Take your place at the round table

In Winchester, visit King Arthur's legendary round table and the ancient Winchester Cathedral, the burial place of Jane Austen. Meander down historic streets of the former ancient capital of England. This beautiful city is well worth a visit. Nearby Marwell Wildlife Park is inhabited by more than 250 exotic and endangered species.

Capital attractions

And don't forget London is just 90 minutes away by train or coach. Catch a West End show, shop till you drop in Oxford Street or visit one of the many amazing tourist attractions, it couldn't be easier to take a day trip to the capital.
